Passionate energy, Purposeful stories, Practical strategies

Jilinda Lee is a recognised leader, change champion, and passionate influencer on all things leadership related.

Known for her vibrant personality, Jilinda Lee doesn't blend in with the ordinary, nor is she inspired by the average. As a change champion, she continually embraces change as exciting chapters of opportunity to learn and experience new things, places, people, and adventures.

Jilinda Lee is an accredited and highly experienced Leadership Coach and Human Behaviour expert, with a driven focus on developing dynamic, game-changing leaders.

From small business owner, to extensive leadership experience in State and Local Government sectors across three states, community leadership roles, and now heading up her own leadership development company, she shares the depth of diverse experiences and valuable knowledge gained from over 30 years in lead roles.

As a presenter, Jilinda delivers lively straight-shooting talks, using meaningful personal stories, designed to inspire and ignite her audience to be the change; to be the vital leaders the world so desperately needs.

Jilinda is currently finishing her first book, with a deliberate focus on inspiring more women to step up into leadership roles.
